

Girl, Why'd You Run Away?

Reggie and the Full Effect

She's driving, oh so very fast
Trying to get away from her past
I don't think she'll escapeSo girl why you run away
You look so afraid, is it of meYou can't sit still for very long
I turned to look but you were gone
I think that I'd stay some moreSo girl why you run away
You look so afraid, is it of meNow that your gone, I wonder
What I could have said to you
I wish I knew you promised me that
Ah, damn itSo girl why you run away
You look so afraid
I hope that it's not of meShe's driving, oh so vary fast
Trying to get away from her past
I don't think she'll escapeSo girl why you run away
You look so afraid, is it of meSo girl why you run away
You look so afraid
I hope that it's not of me
