Abracadavers

The Classic Crime

Its like I never had time to look away
Bodies stuck between death and decay
Are plastic and set up on display
And their eyes are wide and they are looking my wayEach ligament exposed, each muscle connected
And every organ that I proudly neglected
Have been arranged for the common collective Stomaching the sight of human flesh resurrectedIt seems were fearfully made and designed
But its a shame we can be so blindWere all the same
Made of hair and bones and water and blood cells
And were all to blame
For spending way too much time on ourselvesI have been blessed and now Im blind
A veils been pulled over my eyes
Now every bad season that kept me believing
Seems so contrivedTheres more glory to be seen
And savored through suffering
Than ever was through
Self serving escapeIt seems were fearfully made and designed
But its a shame we can be so blindWere all the same
Made of hair and bones and water and blood cells
And were all to blame
For spending way too much time on ourselvesAshes to ashes and dust to dustCause were all the same
Made of hair and bones and water and blood cells
And were all to blame
For spending way too much time on ourselves
