The Classic Crime

Its like I never had time to look away
Bodies stuck between death and decay
Are plastic and set up on display
And their eyes are wide and they are looking my way
Each ligament exposed, each muscle connected
And every organ that I proudly neglected
Have been arranged for the common collective Stomaching the sight of human flesh resurrected
It seems were fearfully made and designed
But its a shame we can be so blind
Were all the same
Made of hair and bones and water and blood cells
And were all to blame
For spending way too much time on ourselves
I have been blessed and now Im blind
A veils been pulled over my eyes
Now every bad season that kept me believing
Seems so contrived
Theres more glory to be seen
And savored through suffering
Than ever was through
Self serving escape
It seems were fearfully made and designed
But its a shame we can be so blind
Were all the same
Made of hair and bones and water and blood cells
And were all to blame
For spending way too much time on ourselves
Ashes to ashes and dust to dust
Cause were all the same
Made of hair and bones and water and blood cells
And were all to blame
For spending way too much time on ourselves
