

All In (feat. Serayah & Yazz)

Empire Cast

You and I, you and I, had our time, had our time
Moments start to fade away
Baby I, baby I, can't decide, can't decide
If you're just a memory We were amazing, I was amazed that we didn't make it
We were amazing, so used to chasing and I can't take it
Can't take the heat and, I won't make it easy for you
You gotta prove it to me I'mma leave it up to you
Boy, you got a lot to prove
Show me why I should go all in, all in
Tell me how you're worth my time
You can help me change my mind
Show me why I should go all in, all in All in, chips up all in, with my hands out
Yeah, last time didn't pan out
Why? 'Cause it really wasn't planned out (right?)
But me and you stand out
Stand out like a diamond in the rough
I got tricks up my sleeve and a lion in my cuff
I'mma keep on tryin' 'til you budge
Leavin' everythin' up to time, it ain't enough
You thinkin' I'mma violate our trust
Like the old me did that annihilated us
I know that I was sussed, but yo
Life ain't as simple as a yes or a no
One thing I know is I adore you
Two things, I know I'm good for ya
I'mma give you more proof than a good lawyer
To show you that I'm loyal
Girl, you know you're royal
