

Solo Flying Mystery Man

Pauline Taylor

Keep it covered
Think your baby won't understand
Blame your mother
You say anything to hold them down
But we're on to you now, now

See them coming
Well they're always knocking on your door
Take your money
Never tell you what the hell it's for

And you'll be rolling over sticks and stones
And nothing on this earth can break your bones
And I always thought you were so damn tall
But I really didn't know you at all

Solo flyin' mystery man
Won't you take me on a ride
'cause I've been waitin' all my life to hear you
Say you want me, I said
I said I swear it's true

Solo flyin' mystery man
Won't you take me on a ride
'Cause I've been waitin' all my life to hear you
Say you want me, I said
I said I swear it's true
