Who's Lonely Now

Highway 101

You walked out on a good love
You found somebody new
And now the one that's turned your head
Is turning her back on youWho's lonely now, whose heart is hurting?
I've had my share of those blues
Who's lonely now, whose head is reelin'?
You're finally feelin' it tooNow you need a little sympathy
You never shoulda walked out on me
Who's lonely now?I feel a whole lot better, I got a new attitude
So you can take my crying towel
And carry it home with youWho's lonely now, whose heart is hurting?
I've had my share of those blues
Well, who's lonely now, whose head is reelin'?
You're finally feelin' it tooNow you need a little sympathy
You never shoulda walked out on me
Who's lonely now?When your rejected, you feel neglected, it's true
In your condition, you need attention
And you know I'd love to help
But I'm seeing someone else
Who's lonely now?Now you know I'd like to help
But I'm seeing someone elseWho's lonely now, whose heart is hurting?
I've had my share of those blues
Well, who's lonely now, whose head is reelin'?
You're finally feelin' it tooWell, who's lonely now?
(Who's lonely now?)
Oh, who's lonely now?
(Who's lonely now?)Who's lonely now?
Well, who's lonely now?
Who's lonely now, whose heart is hurting?
Who's lonely now?
