

Lose It All

The Jekylls

Oh, noTake what you need 'cause I can't hold my breath
Say what you feel 'cause I've got nothing left, oh
I made a promise to myself last night
I'm gonna keep it if it's wrong or rightAnd if I lose it all, there'd be nothing left to lose
And I would take the fall 'cause knowing you are out there
Breathing is so wonderful, it's a chance I'd take even if I break
And I lose it all, if I lose it allIt wouldn't matter anyway, don't change a thing
You're perfect as you are, time has a way, time is all I've got
If my heart should shatter watching you
There'd be one less thing I'd have to proveAnd if I lose it all, there'd be nothing left to lose
And I would take the fall 'cause knowing you are out there
Breathing is so wonderful, it's a chance I'd take even if I break
And I lose it all, if I lose it allHeaven will be waiting when I fall into your lovely arms
I believe you'll find me there
You'll find me thereAnd if I lose it all, there'd be nothing left to lose
And I would take the fall 'cause knowing you are out there
Breathing is so wonderful, it's a chance I'd take even if I break
And I lose it all, if I lose it allAnd if I lose it all, there'd be nothing left to lose
And I would take the fall 'cause knowing you are out there
Breathing is so wonderful, it's a chance I'll take even if I break
And I lose it all, if I lose it allWouldn't matter, anyway
