

Hero (The Voice Performance)

Owen Danoff

Let me go
I don't want to be your hero
I don't want to be your big man
Just want to fight with everyone else Your masquerade
I don't want to be a part of your parade
Everyone deserves a chance to
Walk with everyone else While holding down
A job to keep my girl around
Maybe buy me some new strings
And her a night out on the weekend We can whisper things
Secrets from our American dreams
Baby needs some protection
But I'm a kid like everyone else So let me go
I don't want to be your hero
I don't want to be your big man
I just want to fight with everyone else Your masquerade
I don't want to be a part of your parade
Everyone deserves a chance to
Walk with everyone else Ooohh
Ooohh So let me go
I don't want to be your hero
Everyone deserves a chance to
Walk with everyone else

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>