

Head Cold

Lights

Walk to the corner
Stood in the cold wind
And felt the time
Passing me by
Under a coverAll frozen over
And I know my
Knuckles are white
I'm stuck in a hard placeOut in a rat race
Like everybody else
And this one
Is a big wallI'm in for the long haul
Trying to remind myself
It's just a head cold x2
Need a little push nowSome kind of a shake down
Some kind of a healing today
I'm caught in a landslide
Stuck on the insideLike everybody else
And this one
Is a big wall
I'm in for the long haul
Trying to remind myselfIt's just a head cold x3
It's nothing
It's not loneliness
Nobody came in on a bed of red rosesKeep moving Everyone is
Door's always open when another one closes
It's just a head cold x4
