All Comes Down

National Lines

Say you know me
Count the words inside my head
Like a broken run
Like a promise left unsaid
Change it all again...
Take the moment, write them down inside a frame
Hide them from the light,
And pretend it's just a game,
That you left my world unchanged

(Chorus)
Just when you say you know,
Or when the grace is holding
When you think youâ€™re strong,
It all comes down again
(x2)

Make your shelter
Choose a lie thatâ€™s gonna take place on your disguise
Lay it down a wait,
And watch it fall

(Chorus)
Just when you say you know,
Or when the grace is holding
When you think youâ€™re strong,
It all comes down again
(x2)

You know the words to save me
You choose the ones that break
(x2)

(Chorus)
Just when you say you know,
Or when the grace is holding
When you think youâ€™re strong,
It all comes down again
(x2)

Oh whoaâ€¦
It comes down, it comesâ€¦
Yeahâ€¦
It all comes down again
