

Beyond the Sounds of Battle

Murrell L. Ewing

Beyond The Sounds of Battle

Somewhere there's a place that I can't clearly see Somewhere beyond the storm there's a rainbow for me
Somewhere beyond the clouds the sun must surely shine
And beyond the sounds of battle victory is mine

Satan will be bound and I'll be free at last
My prayers will all be prayed and my trials all past
Somewhere the flag of victory waves though I can't see
Beyond the sounds of battle there's victory for me

I hear my Captain calling and I'll answer the call Trusting this will be the last hill and no comrade will fall
I'll march though I am weary and faithful I will be
For beyond the sounds of battle there's victory for me then Satan will be bound and I'll be free at last

Somewhere the flag of victory already waves though I can't see
And beyond the sounds of battle there's victory for me
