Hard To Tell

Cheap Trick

Well, I've had enough, I'm tired of waiting
The time will come to pass
Why do you do what you do to me?
Why can't you say what you wanna say?Is it not worth investigating?
I thought I'd better ask
Why do you go when you wanna stay?
How will I know what you mean to say?
Undoubtedly I'm all over youIt's not that easy, baby
It's not that hard to tell
It's not that easy, baby
Life is hell but I do it well
It's hard to tellI'm not good at contemplating
They're the odds and it won't last
Why do you do what you do to me?
When will I hear what I wanna hear?It's been so long anticipating
You put me to the test
Why do you say what you mean to say?
How will I know if you're gonna stay?
Undeniably I'm all over youIt's not that easy, baby
It's not that hard to tell
It's not that easy, baby
Life is hell but I do it well
It's hard to tellYou know that I do thatIt's not that easy, baby
It's not that hard to tell
It's not that easy, baby
Life is hell but I do it wellIt's not that easy, baby
It's not that hard to tell
It's not that easy, baby
Life is hell but I do it well
It's hard to tell, hard to tell
It's hard to tell
