

In Your Sea

The Get Up Kids

Every afternoon
A point I hammer home
You had no follow through
Follow through better off alone Wading patiently
Stranded in your sea Sing in time and tune
Where the action is
Dont need the stars and moon
Stars and moon just wanted more than this Wading patiently
Stranded in your sea 'Cause I'm waiting for you
And all you can do, so little to prove
Time is the test of trust
Gets the best of us, for hours, for hours Every afternoon
A point I hammer home
I have no time for you
Time for you, you're better off alone Wading patiently
Stranded in your sea Because I'm waiting for you
And all you can do
So little to prove
Nobody knew, it must have been you I didnt approve
But someday I'll be free
And youll wait for me
For hours, for ours
