Change the Scheme

Concepts

Yeah
The tyrants words are ending lives
I'll take him by the throat
Cause i watched you abandon
Every fucking thing that you believe in
I'm not just a living fool
But i'll shatter the idols that you breath for
This time i'll take what's mine
A breath for a breath an eye for an eye
And we'll leave nothing left inside your mind
But a remnant of hope and your will to survive
Peel away the skin that you've been wearing
Wolf seen as a sheep led into slaughter

You're the reason that my blood runs cold
I'll give everything just to have you know
What i'm feeling and thinking

You disappoint me with these lies that wear so well
You're disguised, trying to hide, trying to be someone else
Don't forget it you'll soon regret it
You feel that you're running from
Someone whose trying to help

I swear it on my life, my body as my oath
I've been trying ti find a way for you
To run away make your way back home

I'll measure the wealth of
The souls of the sould of your shoes
Of the lives that you walk through
But by the time i'm through with you
You will face your judgement with no excuse

Purge purge
Here comes the cleansing
Purge purge
Take back your life

Open your eyes and let this shake you

Gotta learn to free your mind ignore
All the glances from the wicked eyes
We've strayed so far from the grand desing
And the end is coming soon we can see the sings

Lord knows i'm a restless fool
Cause' i only want what's best for you
I try to hide it in and let you know
Guess i never really learned to let it go
It's frozen in time, frozen still in my mind
So why do i keep wishing for
These nearly shattered visions oh
Push the limits of the world we live in
Take what it gives you then make it what you want
All it takes is for you to believe it rather you're ready or not (Just tell me)

You disappoint me with these lies that wear so well
You're disguised, trying to hide, trying to be someone else
Don't forget it you'll soon regret it
You feel that you're running from
Someone whose trying to help

I swear it on my life, my body as my oath
I've been trying ti find a way for you
To run away make your way back home

When will you see this is not what you're meant to be
When will you see you're fucking up your life
You know your prize know make your sacrifice
