Morning Again

"that's the way it's always been."
attempts to control me
to try to make me understand something lost.
along the way.
make me feel mistakes were made.
everything lost.
there's never just one way.
through all your lies.
if it doesn't affect you it doesn't exist.
times have changed. it's not just for you. so used to being followed.
that's how it's always been.
