

I've Got You On My Mind

White Plains

Oh, can't you see I've got you on my mind
They say that love is a blind
And it could be true since I met you

Cause the world has been a much much better place
There's a smile on every face
And the sun shines through when I look at you
Girl, it's true

What a wonderful way to feel
Something you got makes me want to know
Something you do makes this feeling grow
Having you near is sensational magic
I love it

Oh, can't you see I've got you on my mind
They say that love is a blind
But I just don't care if you are there by my side

What a wonderful way to feel
Something you got makes me want to know
Something you do makes this feeling grow
Having you near is sensational magic
I love it

Oh, can't you see I've got you on my mind
They say that love is a blind
And it could be true since I met you

Cause the world has been
A much much better place
There's a smile on every face
And the sun shines through when I look at you

Oh, can't you see I've got you on my mind
They say that love is a blind
And it could be true since I met you
