

Shelter Me (Single Edit)

Joe Cocker

This ain't no place for losers
Or the innocent of mind
It's a full time job
For anyone to stay alive
The streets have satellite boundaries
For the war that's never won
What a wasteland for
Broken dreams and hired guns
Shelter me, baby shelter me
When I'm sinking down and losing ground
Shelter me I've go to sleep with one eye open
The other holds my tears
In the darkness I can hide my heart
But not of my fears
In the morning like a soldier
I'll approach the battleground
Another day, another dollar bill
And the world goes round
Shelter me
Won't you shelter me?
When I'm sinking down and losing ground
Shelter me
Won't you shelter me?
Oh, shelter me
When I lose control on my way home
Shelter me
Every time I tumble down
I wanna pack it up and leave this town
But when I finally get the nerve
Get the lead out of the shoes
I'm thanking you, I thank you
Baby shelter me, please shelter me
When I'm sinking down and losing ground
Shelter me
Won't you shelter me?
When I lose control on my way home
Shelter me
Won't you shelter me?
Oh, shelter me, baby please
Shelter me
Stay back and shelter me
Come on and shelter me
When I lose control on my way home
Shelter me
