

Another Friend

The Movieline

All I ever see is one or two feet in front of me.
And no matter how far I get, I always got one demon left.
And all the time I gave, I dug myself a deeper grave. It's not the same.
I need to wake up 'cause this ain't a fucking game.
I need to know where I stand 'cause I don't need another friend.
Why can't things once just go my way. Stop telling lies to me.
I know it seems like every day. Things don't go my way.
Things don't go my way.
All I ever see is centimeters in front of me.
And no matter how far I get, I always got one problem left.
And all the time I gave, I dug myself a deeper grave. It's not the same.
In the end (in the end) I'll be the one to blame.
I need to know where I stand 'cause I don't need another friend.
Why can't things once just go my way. Stop telling lies to me.
I know it seems like every day. Stop telling lies to me.
I need to know where I stand 'cause I don't,
no I don't need another friend.
no I don't need another friend.
Just let me know where I stand.
