

What If

Coldplay

What if there was no lie?
Nothin' wrong, nothin' right
What if there was no time
And no reason or rhyme? What if you should decide
That you don't want me there by your side
That you don't want me there in your life? What if I got it wrong?
And no poem or song
Could put right what I got wrong
Or make you feel I belong What if you should decide
That you don't want me there by your side
That you don't want me there in your life? Ooh, that's right
Let's take a breath, jump over the side
Ooh, that's right
How can you know it if you don't even try?
Ooh, that's right Every step that you take
Could be your biggest mistake
It could bend or it could break
But that's the risk that you take What if you should decide
That you don't want me there in your life
That you don't want me there by your side? Ooh, that's right
Let's take a breath, jump over the side
Ooh, that's right
How can you know it when you don't even try?
Ooh, that's right Ooh, that's right
Let's take a breath, jump over the side
Ooh, that's right
You know that darkness always turns into light
Ooh, that's right
