

Where You Should Be

Skream

(It keeps me awake)
(It keeps me awake)
(It keeps me awake)
(It keeps me awake)
(Wake)
(It keeps me awake)
(It keeps me awake)

How can I feel good about this life I'm living
When your not here, right beside me
Not here, where you should be

Sometimes it feels like I might as well just turn around and give in
Cause your not here, where you should be
Not here, right beside me

How can I feel good about this life I'm living
When your not here, right beside me
Not here, where you should be

Sometimes it feels like I might as well just turn around and give in
Cause your not here, where you should be
Not here, right beside me

These lonely days
Turn into lonely nights
Everything's upside down
And I've lost the will to fight
You say you have to leave
And won't even tell me why
You took my hopes and dreams
And left me alone to cry

How can I feel good about this life I'm living
When your not here, right beside me
Not here, where you should be

Sometimes it feels like I might as well just turn around and give in
Cause your not here, where you should be

Not here, right beside me

I stare at the phone, hoping that you might call
Wondering who you've been seeing and trying to make sense of it all
They say my heart will grow stronger, ahead of me over the years
But right now that's hard to believe as I lay in my empty bed drowning in tears

How can I feel good about this life I'm living
When your not here, right beside me
Not here, where you should be

Sometimes it feels like I might as well just turn around and give in
Cause your not here, where you should be
Not here, right beside me
