Left Pencey

You've got me wrong
I'm not so hard, I'm not so strong
When this is said and done
I'll realign, I will resolveHe's the golden boy
He's the savior, he's the one
But there's another side
Waiting like a loaded gunYou've got me wrong
I'm not so hard, I'm not so strong
When this is said and done
I'll realign, I will resolveJust a wonder child
That has come to save the day
The hero couldn't fly
So he beats his little faceThe self-afflicted wants to quit
This hurts so good, I must be sickThe worst has yet to come
Tomorrow they will see
It hurts the ones I love
Much more then it hurts meIt hurts the ones
It hurts the ones I loveYou've got me wrong
I'm not so hard, I'm not so strong
When this is said and done
I'll realign, I will resolveAnother blackened eye
Another nail to my skin
I swear this one more time
Let me pay for all my sinsThe self-afflicted wants to quit
This hurts so good, I must be sickThe worst has yet to come
Tomorrow they will see
It hurts the ones I love
Much more then it hurts meIt hurts the ones I love
Much more then it hurts me
It hurts the ones I love
Much more then it hurts meIt hurts the ones I love
Much more then it hurts me, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
