

Heartless

Ian Britt

You scared me so with all the woe and all the pain that came and rained down into your paddling pool you fool And when I fled the scene
I did not mean to steal your heart
But you gave me control
And it's a role I should never be allowed so You died in my care tonight
I walked you down the tunnel into the light
You died in my care tonight
And now I know I am heartless man I'm such a child but I play the man
I do not think I can
Coz all I want to do is play with my crayons
And pretend like I rule the world Well don't you take me back coz I will run
When you tie me down I come undone
No I don't want to play out with you no more And I would make you things to make you think
All the things I think I thought I wanted you to know
Know now I think I loved you more the life its self but still You died in my care tonight
I walked you down the tunnel into the light
You died in my care tonight
And now I know I am heartless man You always kept the lid on your pen
You never lent yourself
You always made me steal from you
Silly you silly you
And now the loudest noise and the brightest lights
And the biggest thrills will bury you when I'm gone
Now I'm gone I'm gone You died in my care tonight
I walked you down the tunnel into the light
You died in my care tonight
And now I know, I know, I know I'm a heartless man
