

Hey Hey Hey

Ryan Shupe & The Rubberband

I wanna know what makes your tock tick
I wanna know what makes your clock tick
All them years goin' round an' round inside your head
Don't make a soundI wanna know what makes your boat go
What makes your engine go, go, go, go, go
That's the thing I want to knowPlease don't say, "Hey, go away"
I'll come again some other day, if I may
'Cause in your arms, I'd rather stay
Hey, hey, hey, hey, heyI wanna know what cloud you're on What fires your neurons?
'Cause it's a sign, your hand in mine
When it sends chills right up my spineI wanna know what makes your heart thump
Goin' bump, bump, bump, bump, bump, bump
But that's the thing that makes me want to jokePlease don't say, "Hey, go away"
I'll come again some other day, if I may
'Cause in your arms, I'd rather stay
Hey, hey, heyAnd please don't say, "Hey, go away"
I'll come again some other day, if I may
'Cause in your arms, I'd rather stay
Hey, hey, hey, hey, heyHey, hey, hey
(Hey, hey, hey, hey)
Hey, hey, hey
(Hey, hey, hey)
