

Lucifer

Los Halos

Lucifer
Pride of stone
Shall you lead the way?

The green grass so high
It kisses my eyes
Will slip away

In a white room
There's the guilt of black
Your angel picks her fall

One that fails, steal her heart
Angel picks her fall tonight
Under evening's watchful eye

Quicksand at your feet
Soon you will be mine
The word was so unkind

Jesus, sing to me please
Open up the blind
From the heart, not through your soul

Angel pick your fool tonight
Under evening's watchful eye

Farewell my fair-weathered friend
I know I'll come to see you once again

Goodbye big blue sky
I know I'll come to miss you in my time
