

Silent Spring

Primal Scream

If all the birds have cursed the sky
A flaming fortress, hunting prey
A feathered bird deflowered dies
The flowers dieMy knife has turned on life itself
My skin is bathed in poison rain
A room right on an empty shelf
Empty shelfAll the time in the world
And you never changed a thing
All the time in the world
And you stood back and watched
The silent spring, silent springThe hovering of every breath
A legacy of decay infests
Just let me imagine mother earth
Mother earthChorus (x2)Silent spring (repeat)
