

Anything Anytime Anywhere

Mishka

Anything, anytime, anywhere.
How blessed we are to have this life to share.
A song from your heart, yeah, is surely a prayer.
A light at the end of the tunnel, a breath of fresh air. So I give you my love, unconditionally Cause I know that true love is free. They say that everything in life comes with a price.
And if they give you anything it comes attached to a string.
Just see how the pie is sliced.
I'm gonna tell you one time,
but I hope you think twice
What it is you're really doing when you roll the dice. As I give you my love, unconditionally
I know that true love is free.
And I never know where I'm goin'
'til I'm on the move.
And I never know what time it is
'til I'm in the groove. And I'm groovin'.
Oh I'm movin'.
Yes I'm groovin'.
Oh I'm movin'. (Yeahs) Don't never happen before it's time.
That's your reality.
Everything as it is,
is as it's meant to be.
Is it just a face of the moon?
Or is it planetary?
Is it evolution?
Or is it prophecy?
Well I give you my love, unconditionally.
Cause I know that true love is free.
I say. The clown in the mirror, is only getting older.
The child in the music, is forever young.
Could I make it any clearer?
Take the world off your shoulders?
Let your word be truthful, and let you sound the sound. Cause I give you my love, unconditionally.
I know that true love is free.
Yes I give you my love, unconditionally...
I know that true love is free.
