Cold Dark World

Slick Fitty

I can watch little girl from the back of my car
I see you and show at the place that you are
Groceries spillin' up out of your bag
Thinkin youll end up a penniless hagBut I see the girl that you are deep inside
Wont you allow me to give you a ride?
I can console you and give you a kiss
Show you that you can do better than thisAngel girl, in a cold, dark world
Im gonna be your man
Angel girl, in a cold dark world
Ill make you understandI know youre thinkin Im trying to score
But deep in your heart you know that Im more
Than a cat or a scoundrel
Now that Ive found you, I dont want to lose you
How can I prove?You know that I am sincere, you dont need to fear
Im not like the others, Ill be like a brother
I will protect you, never disrespect you
But if you love then Ill be here to sex youAngel girl, in a cold, dark world
Im gonna be your man
(Im gonna be there)
Angel girl, in a cold dark world
Ill make you understandIt might take awhile to get with the style
Life at the end of the miracle mile
But youre gonna love the rising above
All the trash that is sweeping you under the rug
Im gonna be thereAngel girl, in a cold, dark world
Im gonna be your man
(Im gonna be there)
Angel girl, in a cold, dark world
Ill make you understand
(Im gonna be there)Angel girl, angel girl
Im gonna be your man
Angel girl, angel girl
Ill make you understand
