Never Enough

Poisonblack

I am waiting for the ricochet as I'm reaching towards the shadow
I feel the scouring fire...redeemer
Desire to burn through alive...and on and onI am flesh and blood the weakness
I am heart and soul...desire
Place my finger on the trigger
Make the darkness as my brideMy soul is spoken for to the one I'm breathing for This pain for you is never enough
Craving forevermore for the one I'm dying for
Do you know how much I want you
Do you know I've lost control
It's so much stronger than me
All that I want yet never enough
