When Hope Is All You Have

Spoken

When hope is all you have
You realize just how much
You need someoneWhen the weight of the world
It seems to be all yours
The hand of hope will carry you
Will carry you throughWhen the weight of the world
It seems to be all yours
The hand of hope will carry you
Will carry you throughCarry you through
Through the rain
When hope is fading
When hope is goneWhen the weight of the world
It seems to be all yours
The hand of hope will carry you
Will carry you throughWhen the weight of the world
It seems to be all yours
The hand of hope will carry you
Will carry you throughWill you carry me through the rain
Through the rain with you?When the weight of the world
It seems to be all yours
The hand of hope will carry you
Will carry you throughWhen the weight of the world
It seems to be all yours
The hand of hope will carry you
Will carry you, carry, carry you through
