

East Of The River

Wet Wet Wet

Gotta gotta know, I see the sun in your eyes
Let me take your hand and we'll go to wonderland
Bet you've asked silly questions, like do I still love you
Better than eating, honey'Cos you're the girl
From the east of the riverThey all went mad on the way out west end
But we've all bet our bottom dollar
That my arch full flame will win you over
'Cos I'm the lie that tells the truth'Cos you're the girl
From the east of the riverWhere all the grass is greener
And out pockets are all paved with gold
Please turn to gold, please return to old east of the river
But it won't work with nobody but you'Cos you're the girl
From the east of the river
