

Man Overboard

Max Milner

Strong till I die
Amusing the chaos I'll be fine till I cry
I don't expect to ever know till I try
Still I get by on love
Wrong till its right
We make mistakes and learn to fix them in time
Try treading water and then swim through the night
We all get by on love
I don't see money as a reason
To forget that life's for breathing
Man over board
Ten miles from shore
Not boat, no oars
I won't be pulled down today
I won't be pulled down to day
Ohh ohh ohh ohh
Man over board but I'm ok
In till I'm out
Don't have the time to question what I do now
I'll paddle forward leaving no room for doubt
No ill get by on love
A seed till it sprouts
Amongst the ever growing weeds we cut down
Just trying to find a way move through the crowds
We all get by on love
Mmmmm
I don't see money as a reason
To forget that life's for breathing.
Man over board
Ten miles from shore
Not boat, no oars
I won't be pulled down today
I won't be pulled down to day
Ohh ohh, ohh ohh
Man over board but I'm ok
Not battered but worn
No broken ust torn nothing can pull me under
I will return once I have learned to stop the bleeding but until then I'm
A man over board

Ten miles from shore
Not boat, no oars
I won't be pulled down today
I won't be pulled down to day
Man over board
Ten miles from shore
Not boat, no oar
I won't be pulled down today
I won't be pulled down to day
Ohh ohh, ohh ohh
Man over board but I'm ok
Ohh, aohh, ohh, ohh
(End)
