

I Eat Your Skin

Cattle Decapitation

Upon these walls draping outlines of once living parasites
The human as a rotten spectacle
I eat your skin, sheath of epidermis
Fillet of flesh, stripped, washed and tanned Source of vitamin D and protein
Oils drained for future feminine products
Perfect hollow shell, I now am someone else
I eat your skin Step inside the human jumpsuit
See what they saw, feel what they felt
As you now kill yourself
Only to be gorged, I eat you skin Dead meal, no meat only dry, cooked skin cells
All surface blemishes discarded parts is parts
I eat your skin, sheath of epidermis
Fillet of flesh, stripped, washed and tanned I eat your skin, squamous and transverse
Masticating the cutaneous, acne, boils and pus
I eat your skin, I suck the very life out, sheath of epidermis
Fillet of flesh, stripped, washed rawhide I eat your skin, squamous and transverse
Copulating the cutaneous, blackheads, scabs and pus
I eat your skin, I suck the very life out of Your rotted corpse leaving you dehydrated
