Don't Hate Me

Earshot

K', Mister Lonely, you don't know me anymore
I bled for you, now bleed for me something more
I've got a fire inside, from all your bullshit and lies in all your efforts to break me
Look deep and on in my eyes, see the disgust in this voice
Will you remember, will you remember?Don't hate me
When you're feeling alone
Don't hate me
Cause I got something you don't
Don't hate me
You will remember
Don't hate me
When you freak outI'll pull the plug and take you under Cut you like no other
'Till my dying day
'Till the day I dieBaby, baby as I say
'Till I sense [alone?]
Someday, day, day, will come the day
You will remember
When you rememberDon't hate me
When you're feeling alone
Don't hate me
Cause I got something you don't
Don't hate me
You will remember
Don't hate me
When you freak outDon't hate me
When you're feeling alone
Don't hate me
Cause I got something you don't
Don't hate me
You will remember
Don't hate me
When you freak outWon't be long
'Till your world comes down in flames
You lead, I followed, then you tried to take it all away
Tried to take it all awayTried to take it all away
Tried to take it allDon't hate me
When you're feeling alone
Don't hate me

Cause I got something you don't
Don't hate me
You will remember
Don't hate me
When you freak outDon't hate me
When you're feeling alone
Don't hate me
Cause I got something you don't, don't, don't, don't, don't
Don't hate me
You will remember
Don't hate me
When you freak outOh yeah
When you freak out, yeah
Freak out
Mmhmmm... Hmmmmm.. Mmhmmm... MmmHmm-mmm... Mmm...
