Human Again

Genevieve

(Sugar and spice and everything nice
Sugar and spice and everything nice
Sugar and spice and everything nice
Sugar and spice and everything nice)I used to be a Yes girl, Yes girl
Dress me up in white, I'll sign the papers
I used to be a promise maker
Leaving trails of endless empty favors
I used to be my father's daughter
Everything I did was for attention
Like an undercover soldier,
Posing for a picture of perfection
Sleeping in so late that by the time I woke up,
The day had turned to nightIt feels like I'm almost human, human
It feels like I'm almost back in my skin
It feels like I'm almost human
It feels like I'm almost human againI used to be a power play, power play
Pushing me from one place to another
I used to be a runaway, runaway
I was only looking for my mother
Staying out so late that by the time I woke up,
The day had turned to nightIt feels like I'm almost human, human
It feels like I'm almost back in my skin
It feels like I'm almost human
It feels like I'm almost human again[I'm surrounded in my dreams, but not a way more towards my lives
I'm the lover of a sheen,] ??
I'll leave the nightmares behind me.It feels like I'm almost human, human
It feels like I'm almost back in my skin
It feels like I'm almost human
It feels like I'm almost human again
