

Open Your Eyes

Nora Aunor

In my life in my heart theres no one else but you Wish you were in my arms and in my heart youll hear the cry .Theres no one else but you If you would only open your eyes true love will smile at you. I couldn't laugh and I couldn't cry all my friends wanna know why I'm so lonely I need somebody but no where to find. No other heart will take your place oh as long as I leave and once again please open your eyes you'll see me waiting for you.
