

Sex You

Bando Jonez

All the rain keeps falling and these hoes keep calling
Uh all these raindrops falling down my window
Got me wishing that we did the things we didn't do And right now I wanna sex you baby
Has anybody sexed you lately
Got all these hoes calling asking me to come through (Asking me to come through)
What they don't know is all they make me do is call you (you) And ask if I can sex you lady, oh
Can we do it til we both look crazy, crazy
Baby you know I'm from Atlanta and they raise me like a killer
Raise me like a villain
Raise me like a pimp
And there's a lot of girls out here
And I could have all of them
But I don't want none of them
I only want one of them All I wanna do is sex you baby
I wanna know
Have you had any good sex, lately lately lately lately All these raindrops falling on my window
All the rain keeps falling and these hoes keep calling
All these raindrops falling on my window
Got me looking for my phone
I wanna know Can I sex you baby
Have you had any good sex, lately lately lately lately Baby you know i'm from Atlanta and they raise me like a pimp
Raise me like a pimp
Raise me like a pimp
And there's a lot of girls out here
And I could have all of them
But I don't want none of them
I only want one of them All I wanna do is sex you baby
I wanna know
Have you had any good sex, lately lately lately lately Have, sex
Have, have you had it
Have, sex
Have, good sex
Have you had any good sex girl oh Is that you baby
Baby
Have you had any good sex, lately lately lately lately Sex, have you had it
Sex, good sex
Sex, have you had it
All these rain drops falling down my window
