Final Chapter

Project Theory

(VERSE 1)
You can't hide
Try to find
All this time you've lost for nothing
This life is short
A lie so long
And if you fall you've got to stand up(Pre Chorus)
I'll take the blame but I'll take everything with me
I felt the pain it was smashing and my head is whirling
I've been alone in the dark but I got redemption
(What if I)
And as long as you rest I try to calcify myself
And when I'm ready I will show you what I represent
With a recursion to the past I will stop the ache(CHORUS)
What if I say, to live one more day (one more day)
And what if I fall (If I fall), the world is so cold
And I'm too young to...(VERSE 2)
Inter your soul, you feel alone
You're standing on the edge of the unknown
Without thinking about
Life is moving and you stay back(Pre Chorus)
And the only way is to exempt the hate
But I don't know how many hits now I can take
The time is running out and I feel that I'll collapse
(What if I)
And now you say that you are with me but there's no trust
I have to adjust, move on and forget the past
Just keep in mind all the things that got left back(CHORUS)
What if I say, to live one more day (one more day)
And what if I fall (If I fall), the world is so cold
And I'm too young to...(BRIDGE)
I can't do this no more
We have to stop this war
You can't run from me now
I won't fall, I won't bow (x2)(CHORUS)
Say, I lived one more day (one more day)
And I didn't fall (didn't I fall), the world is so cold
And I'm too young to...
