

Georgia Girl

Clay Hughes

She moved south as a child
She moved from the Jersey Shore
Such a [Incomprehensible] the ocean
But she don?t recall much more
She loved the contagious youth
Still she swears she has no past
And says she don?t take love
?Cause that high, it never last
Welcome to her world
Welcome to the world
Of my Georgia girl
She offers up fellowship
To those who come from broken homes
Yes, she laughs in the crowds
While her heart is all alone
Welcome to her world
Welcome to the world
Of my Georgia girl
Welcome to her world
Welcome to the world
Of my Georgia girl
She moved south as a child

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>