I Am Blessed

Eternal

Here in the silence I say a prayer
Though I've never seen you somehow I know you're there
You're in the faces of the people that I meet
You're as silent as the earth beneath my feetSo if I should complain
That all I have is not enough

Forgive me, I've been given so muchAnd I am blessed, every time I look into my baby's eyes
I think of all the friends who've touched my life

I realize in a world where some have more and some have less
I have love and I am blessedSo many changes this world can put you through Sometimes it's hard to find a way if a heart can get confused
But then I hold you and it all falls into place

You've given me what time cannot eraseSo when I'm feeling down

Or feel sorry for myself

I look around and it's easy to tellThat I am blessed, every time I look into my baby's eyes
I think of all the friends who touched my life

I realize in a world where some have more and some have less
I have love and I am blessedEvery time I look into my baby's eyes
I realize

I think of all the friends who touched my lifeAnd I am blessed, every time I look into my baby's eyes

I think of all the friends who have touched my life
I realize you've given me such peace and happiness
In this world where some have more and some have less
I am loved and I am blessed
