

Thank You Mr Atkins

The Fins

You make us ride
Fill us with pride
Decide our lives
And then you
Tell us "go"
Don't want to know
If we'll survive

So we march
And we die
Families cry
Do you care?

We are the one
We are the one
Who serve despite oblivion

You are the ones
You are the ones
Who put the man behind the gun

You hide at the back
Calling "attack"
We fade to black

And then you deny we exist
No, not on your list
Now you are dismissed

So we fall
And we crawl
Just so you can forget us all

We are the one
We are the one
Who serve despite oblivion

You are the ones
You are the ones

Who put the man under the gun

So we march on

Oblivion

So we march on

Oblivion

So we march on

Oblivion

We are the one

We are the one

Who serve despite oblivion

You are the ones

Yeah, you are the ones

Who put the man under the gun

We are the one

Yeah, we are the one

Who serve despite oblivion

You are the ones

Yeah, you are the ones

Who put the man under the gun
