My Distress

Artifex

woke up dead again
on a cold october morning their eyes were staring at me none of them said a word

â€‹suddenly in my veins I felt the heat inside and then my heart
began to beat again

â€‹the suffering
the only thing I know entwined in my depression so lost â€˜n so alone
where do I go
am I the only one
this is my di stress
please, leave me alone

I chose to live in my own way digging with tooth and nail Iâ€™ve got no strenght to pray Iâ€™ve got no tears to shed
