

Wherever Love Goes

Randy Houser

One thing we know will always stay the same
Is things change, and love is no exception.
Oh, sometimes it's just the world it turns so fast
And just like that, you're losing your direction.

Oh, but I won't lose you
You can't lose me
We'll find our way together

Wherever love goes
Whatever it takes
Through good and bad, I've got your back
I'm all the way
Wherever love moves
You're never alone
I'll move with you
And baby I'll move with you too
Wherever love goes

Let's close our eyes and walk out on that wire
Into that fire, I know we can make it
Oh, and I've got all the faith we'll ever need
And I believe (oh I believe) that chances are for taking

There's no limit
There's no too far
We'll say a prayer and follow

Wherever love goes
Whatever it takes
Through good and bad, I've got your back
I'm all the way
Wherever love moves
You're never alone
I'll move with you
And baby I'll move with you too
Wherever love goes

Wherever love goes
Whatever it takes

I'll move with you, I'll move

Wherever love goes

Whatever it takes

Through good and bad, I've got your back

I'm all the way (I'm all the way)

Wherever love moves

You're never alone

I'll move with you

And baby I'll move with you too

Wherever love goes

Wherever love goes

Wherever love goes

Wherever love goes

Wherever love goes

Wherever love goes
