

Because He Lives

Guy Penrod

They all walked away, with nothing to say
They'd just lost their dearest friend
All that He said, now He was dead
So this was the way it would end
The dreams they had dreamed were not what they'd seemed
Now that He was dead and gone
The garden, the jail, the hammer, the nail
How could a night be so long
Then came the morning, night turned into day
The stone was rolled away, hope rose with the dawn
Then came the morning, shadows vanished before the sun
Death had lost and life had won, for morning had come
The angel, the star, the kings from afar
The wedding, the water, the wine
Now it was done, they'd taken her son
Wasted before his time she knew it was true
She'd watched him die too
She'd heard them call Him just a man
But deep in her heart, she knew from the start
Somehow her son would live again
Then came the morning, night turned into day
The stone was rolled away, hope rose with the dawn
Then came the morning, shadows vanished before the sun
Death had lost and life had won, for morning had come
Then came the morning, shadows vanished before the sun
Death had lost and life had won, for morning had come
Morning had come
