Blue (Live 2007)

The Birthday Massacre

Plastic blue invitations in my room
I've been waiting here for you
Reservations made for two
Sunlight fadingBlack tongues speak faster than the car can crash
You supply the rumours, and I'll provide the wrath
Romance is breaking every heart in two
Casting shadows in the pale shade of bluePlastic blue conversations in my room
Saving every tear for you
Trusting every word untrue
Twilight fadingFate changes faster than the death of light
You supply the envy and I'll provide the spite
Reflections cutting every face in two
Casting shadows in the pale shade of blue
