God and You

Striking Matches

There's a wall around the soft spot in my soul.
Where I don't let to many people go.
In fact the only only ones who's ever broken through
Are god and youThere are pieces of my heart
I wish Id saved
Blowing somewhere in the wind
Out there today
The only one's I know to say im sorry too
Are God and you
God and youIt took the two of you to show me
Love is real and hearts are holy
And I ain't meant to be some lonely island
And If love really lasts forever
We will always be together
Nothing Changes that, not even dyingCause when I die I'm going to
God and youIt took the two of you to show me
Love is real and hearts are holy
And I aint meant to be some lonely island
And If love really lasts forever
We will always be together
Nothing Changes that, not even dyingThey say everybody leaves this world alone
For some maybe that's the way it goes
As for me I know Ive tied my spirit toGod and you
God and youThere's a wall around the soft spot in my soul.
Where I don't let to many people go.
In fact the only only ones who's ever broken through
Are god and you
