

Stayed a Little Late Tonight

Erasure

I just wanted everything to be perfect
But you would call me slightly O.C.D.
You know that there's a right time, a right place
Everything in order, a logic and a system to everything
Tear it into pieces, go on tear it into piecesThere were nights when things you do would scare me
Your behavior somewhat O.T.T.
You know that now I have to question
Why I couldn't leave it well alone
You were going that way, while I was going this way
But we left that situationShould have left when you said
You don't live here no more
You're just hanging around
I stayed a little late tonight
I stayed a little late tonight
Well aware that you know
That we'd been here before
And you're pulling me down
I stayed a little late tonight
I stayed a little late tonightI guess it must be something in my make up
I could be my own worst enemy
This ain't a two-way conversation
Why I couldn't listen long ago
Thought I could handle your rejection
Stand up on my own but I'm walking on a tight rope
