Back In The Arms Of Love

Jack Greene

Back in the arms of love forever home to stay
With you the rose of love blooms every dayBack in the arms of love never again to stray
Where aching hearts and tears have moved awayDarling, forgive me for being a fool
For I know, how close I came to losing youBack in the arms of love where skies are crystal blue
And every day is spring because of youDarling, forgive me for being a fool
For I know, how close I came to losing youBack in the arms of love where skies are crystal blue
And every day is spring because of youBack in the arms of love, back home with you
