Bars For Thought

Iniquity Rhymes

You worry â€˜bout search tags while I focus on the content
Donâ€™t lose sight doing covers covering yourself
Or get that parody mindset
I hope to discover not needinâ€™ wealth, my mindâ€™s set
On the youth who are cryinâ€™ for help. I rap with substance:
Iniquity. A blind threat
Welcome to Bars For Thought

A lot of them think I discovered luck
That I upload music here and there
For views to collect a couple bucks
But to me thatâ€™s icing on the cake
The moneyâ€™s nothinâ€™ much
Precisely why I donâ€™t design cheesy thumbnails with some bubble butts

Iâ€™m tough enough, donâ€™t need to buckle up
I self erupt the cypher, bring life to the public with that subtle touch
You see itâ€™s you that needs to worry and embrace self
Iâ€™ll disgrace hell with my flame spell
Spitting embers when the rubble comes

Itâ€™s with music I became alive
Thatâ€™s why it stresses me the hell
Out every night, at times I canâ€™t provide
The tunes take time to find the light
Behooves my mind to fight the righteous
Confused thoughts and asinine excuses
Why I cannot rhyme

But I battle through emotion â€˜cause I know thereâ€™s room to grow
Try to dabble with the motion of words, must perfect the flow
Ignore the hate continue where I left off thatâ€™s defeating foes
Iâ€™m Cloud to their Sephiroth their Final Fantasyâ€™s a lethal dose

Yo, Iâ€™m all up in your paint
Thereâ€™s too many on the fence who contemplate and suffer from pain
Your gluttonous brain is what you should blame now what you create
Is all for the fame, tell me is it worth it to be something you ainâ€™t?

Nahâ€”Excuse my grammar, to be something youâ€™re not

Youâ€™re the nail to Lifeâ€™s hammer
But thereâ€™s plenty time to replot
Before you contaminate, examine, wait, eradicate the fabrications
That you tell yourself now or youâ€™re bound to be topped
