Pretty Girl

No Address

She's just a pretty girl
Who comes around here to make you smile
Red wine all stains your lips
And baby I'd like to wipe it offBut I can't bare to touch you now
Your eyes are looking down
Right into the pavement and I hope you know
That I tried to change your mindTwenty floors up, baby says
She just sometimes wants to jump
She holds a drink, she holds a dream
But that's not allHand in your pockets
Jingling on your keys and I can't stop it
And I hope you don't
