Heaven

Lydia Loveless

Well, here comes the beer on a cloud [?]
Something to say to the crowd
Well, we built a wall in between us
Lock it upCause here comes a guy wearing no shoes
God, you can't even die with nothing to lose
Well, now he's mad about a fit I threw
When I met you, honey, I thought I had found release [relief?]
And we could stay together
But paradise is only for the weakling
No one goes to heaven
No one goes to heaven
Oh, we're at the mercy of men's fevered dreams
Every night He doesn't visit me
Cause God doesn't ever
Ever really speak to she's [?]
And I'm coming down now [?]
I thought I would be okay
But everything just happens
Everything is an accident, man
No one goes to heaven
No one goes to heavenWe built a wall in between us
Keep it down
When I see you at the gate
And God it's been forever
But like a stranger, you just turn away
Cause no one goes to heavenI thought I had found release [relief?]
And we could be together
But paradise is only for the weak, man
No one goes to heaven, no!
No one goes to heaven, no!
